Dear Hiring Manager,

I'm writing to apply for the open position with your organization. I bring an unusual mix: licensed welding and commercial trucking experience, U.S. Navy Reserve service, film and television background work, and a self-built publishing company where I write, compose, photograph and market my own work.

What ties it together is follow-through. I show up, I learn the system, and I finish the job — whether that's a weld, a delivery, a day on set or a book on Amazon. I work well under direction, and I'm just as comfortable managing myself.

My resume is attached, and my work is online at musicallessness.com and my Amazon author page. I'd welcome the chance to talk. You can reach me at (562) 638-8432 or jharden79@gmail.com.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Jared Edward Harden

Dear Hiring Manager,

I'm applying for the creative role on your team. I'm an author with a catalog of self-published Kindle titles, a composer who keeps a daily journal of original violin scores, and the builder of my own WordPress publications at musicallessness.com.

I write copy, produce content and promote it myself, and I've written product copy across 170+ SKUs under strict compliance rules. I'd bring that same output and discipline to your projects.

My resume is attached, and my work is online at musicallessness.com and my Amazon author page. I'd welcome the chance to talk. You can reach me at (562) 638-8432 or jharden79@gmail.com.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Dear Hiring Manager,

I'm applying for the open trades position. I'm an apprentice/journeyman licensed welder with commercial trucking experience and service in the U.S. Navy Reserve.

I take safety, inspections and schedules seriously, and I'm used to structured, team-based work. Outside the shop I run a small business, so I understand what dependable crew members mean to a company.

My resume is attached, and my work is online at musicallessness.com and my Amazon author page. I'd welcome the chance to talk. You can reach me at (562) 638-8432 or jharden79@gmail.com.

Dear Hiring Manager,

I'm reaching out to seek representation as I move from background work into principal roles. I've worked background through Central Casting and have earned union background vouchers.

I'm comfortable on set, on camera and with direction, and I bring real special skills: welding, truck driving, violin composition, skateboarding, RC sailing and a student pilot certificate. I'd welcome a conversation about where I fit on your roster.

My resume is attached, and my work is online at musicallessness.com and my Amazon author page. I'd welcome the chance to talk. You can reach me at (562) 638-8432 or jharden79@gmail.com.

I'm applying for a volunteer or entry-level role in telecare and peer support. I've written wellness curricula and recovery-focused workbooks, and I'm working toward a long-term goal of becoming a licensed physician.

I communicate plainly and with empathy, and my Navy Reserve service taught me reliability under structure. I'd be glad to contribute while learning from your team.

My resume is attached, and my work is online at musicallessness.com and my Amazon author page. I'd welcome the chance to talk. You can reach me at (562) 638-8432 or jharden79@gmail.com.
